

Notice on Adjustment of Teaching Affairs Arrangement for Spring Semester of 2020 at International Cultural Exchange School, Fudan University

Dear students,

Subject to the impact of the coronavirus epidemic, the spring semester of 2020 has to be postponed until it is safe for in-class instruction and learning. Our sincere apologies go to students from all parts of the world and we appreciate your kind understanding of the situation. Your support provides strength and inspiration for us to face hardships with faith and resilience.

The adjustment of the language programs for spring semester of 2020 is as follows:

1. Time for returning and admission

The university will officially announce the date for returning and/or admission when ready. Please follow the updates on university and school websites and we will send you notification via email as well.

2. Arrangement for the upcoming online teaching

Online courses will be launched on March 2 and will continue until you can come to classroom upon official announcement. Schedules of online instruction will be sent via email to all new and returning students and your reply is needed for signing up the course.

Guided by Fudan standard of Chinese language teaching as well as the principle of integrated teaching, these online courses are designed by in-depth expertise for building skills in listening, speaking, reading and writing effectively. We will soon notify you via email the platforms and ways to access course material and engage in online learning. You will get connected with your teachers and peers via online interactions.

3. The culture expedition and internship activities as planned for the spring semester will be suspended.

Thank you once more for your understanding and support!

Prof. Wu Zhongwei

Dean of International Cultural Exchange School
